

I support the current version of NJ's do not call list. Change of the current version would weaken and thus defeat the purpose of NJ's do not call list. Actually it should be more restrictive and also ban political campaigning as well.